Dear Fellow Engineers,
Warm greetings to you as we once again gather to elect the leadership of our organization, the EIZ.

Our Challenge

We are coming from a period which has been full of economic upheaval globally and the challenges also affected our Institution. There is no doubt that the future will continue to be dynamic and full of further challenges, change and restructuring. The imminent revised Act will usher in a period in which we as the “senior” Institution will have to take a leading role in integrating the crafts (men and women), technicians and technologists into an all inclusive, respected and influential national body. This will be the greatest challenge of all and will require discipline, persistence, team work and strong leadership for successful implementation.

Our Aspirations and Commitment

The EIZ must occupy its rightful place as the ‘Engine of Growth’ in our country Zambia. We all aspire to see our Institution as a leader in all facets of national endeavour. There are no activities which do not benefit from the fruits of engineering in its many diverse forms.

My personal commitment to the Institution and you my fellow engineers is unconditional. I will always stand ready to participate and contribute to the various activities as currently outlined in the Strategic Plan and as may be revised in future.
